Good try. Read your writing again and study the feedback. Make changes and click Check again, or return to Workbooks and start a new task.

Did you write about the question? (5 is best)

Hi, Jan! I hope you're doing fine.

Precisly a few days ago I was thinking about all the great moments we shared in college. And since it'll be 5 years soon since we left college I totally agree with you about the celebration.

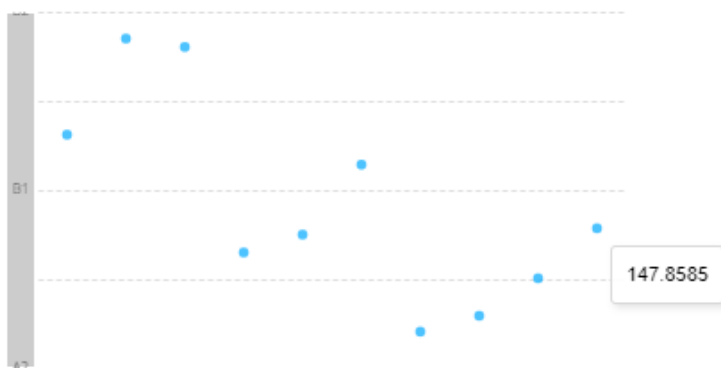

I think the best time to make the party would be next weekend so the most of our friends  get an early notification and schedule the event.

I could definitely help with the food and you could make some dessert. What do you think?

Let me know the minute you read this. See you soon!

I really feel I must practice more in order to make a good score in the real exam. But I believe I'm doing fine; I just need to practice more.
